Strategy, copy and design on every piece. Photography for Cuppa Lumpia.

CLASS OF 2030 · HOCO CRUISE

A parent-facing event, from flyer to text thread.

Parents needed one clear set of times, pickup details and payment instructions. I wrote and designed a printed flyer, a square for text threads and an Evite hero.

Names and the payment handle are blurred for privacy.

Flyers

CLASS OF 2030 · HOCO CRUISE

The same details, sized for phones and invites.

The square can be read in a text thread without opening it. The Evite hero leads with the date and meeting point.

A benefit screening, launched on Instagram.

Citizen Medic hosts a private benefit screening each December. I planned, wrote and designed the ticket campaign, and designed and built the landing page.

Schedule and pricing, set as information.

Post copy I wrote

Every seat at First Light includes dinner brought to your seat. VIP is $300, with doors at 4:00 for the reception, light snacks and drinks, and center seats. Standard is $150, with doors at 5:00 for dinner and the film. There's no late seating once the film starts at 5:30.

Buying four together? Four VIP seats are $1,000, four Standard seats are $500. Email events@citizenmedic.org.

CITIZEN MEDIC · FIRST LIGHT 2026

Share pieces and the email header.

A square built to be forwarded, a feed post about the room itself, and the header for the ticket email.

CUPPA LUMPIA

A family brand, from logo to driveway stand.

Cuppa Lumpia sells my family's lumpia from a weekend driveway stand. I designed the identity and the stand, and took the photographs. I also designed and built the website, cuppalumpia.com.

CUPPA LUMPIA

A menu board for the stand.

A 24 × 18 inch board for the driveway stand.
Prices, sizes and the order-ahead QR code
sit in fixed places so they can be updated.

CUPPA LUMPIA

A counter card and a pop-up story.

The 5 × 7 inch counter card sells frozen dozens to take home. The Instagram story announces a pop-up, with the date, time and address set large.

MY CAMINO FINANCIAL

Social and email for a new financial planning practice.

Every piece points to the free 15-minute intro call. The copy comes from the approved site, and the design follows the client's brand.

Leslie Roulias, Founder of My Camino Financial

A pricing one-pager and a launch news release.

The one-pager sets out five packages and the sliding scale on one letter page. The news release announces the practice in the founder's voice and quotes her directly.

The screenshot shows a pricing page for My Camino Financial. At the top, the logo and website URL 'mycaminofinancial.org' are visible. The main heading is 'Pick your path. Every price is a range.' Below this, a paragraph explains the sliding scale pricing based on median income and assets. A sub-heading reads 'Where you land in the range is worked out together, on your intro call, based on your situation, not guesswork on your end.' The page features five service packages, each with a title, a price range, and a description: 'Thrive' ($800 - $1,400, marked as 'MOST CLIENTS START HERE'), 'Focus' ($400 - $700), 'Unite' ($400 - $700), 'Launch' ($400 - $600), and 'Clarity' ($150 - $250). A dashed box at the bottom highlights 'Community Circles' for $25-$50 per session. A dark blue footer contains the text 'Not sure which one fits?' and 'That's exactly what the free call is for.' along with a 'Book your free call' button.

Pick your path. Every price is a range.

Priced on a sliding scale based on your area's median income. Built for the people traditional advisors turn away for not having enough assets yet. If cost is what's stopping you, say so on your call.

Where you land in the range is worked out together, on your intro call, based on your situation, not guesswork on your end.

Thrive MOST CLIENTS START HERE	$800 - $1,400
For anyone ready to build a full financial foundation. Six 50-minute sessions, start to finish: where you are now, your money story, your values, your spending and saving, insurance, and investing with intention.
Focus	$400 - $700
For anyone working through one goal in depth. Three 50-minute sessions: a clear, actionable path forward, and the confidence to take the next step.
Unite	$400 - $700
For couples ready to get on the same page. Three 50-minute sessions to align your values, priorities, and plan, together.
Launch	$400 - $600
For recent grads or anyone re-entering the workforce. Four 50-minute sessions: resumes, cover letters, mock interviews, negotiating your offer.
Clarity	$150 - $250
For anyone facing one specific decision or transition. One 50-minute session: retirement, a spending habit, an investment you're weighing, a negotiation.
Community Circles. For people in caregiving and early-career roles: birth workers, teachers, social workers, and new grads. Small group sessions, $25-$50 per session.

Not sure which one fits?
That's exactly what the free call is for.

The screenshot shows a news release titled 'Berkeley money mentor My Camino Financial launches new website'. It includes the sub-header 'Make It Land.' and 'FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE'. The main headline is 'Berkeley money mentor My Camino Financial launches new website'. Below this, a paragraph states 'The site says what founder Leslie Roulias does, who she works with and how to start.' A screenshot of the website is shown, featuring the headline 'Your money mentor, wherever you're starting from'. The news release text continues: 'BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 4, 2026 — My Camino Financial today launched a new website at mycaminofinancial.org. The site introduces founder Leslie Roulias as a money mentor and names the three groups she works with: first-time investors and savers, women navigating a transition, and recent grads and career starters.' The release ends with '— mgmg —'.
